ALPS Sector Dividend DOGs 2018 Performance

Source Bloomberg, L.P., as of December 31, 2018. Past performance is not indicative of future results. Please see page 2 for Standardized Performance.

- The ALPS “DOGS” strategies, which consist of deep value stocks with attractive yields, lagged this year as value names suffered globally for most of the year while tech stocks (growth-oriented) led the global markets.

ALPS Midstream Energy 2018 Performance

Source Bloomberg, L.P., as of December 31, 2018. Past performance is not indicative of future results. Please see page 2 for Standardized Performance.

- Midstream Energy transportation stocks, as represented by the Alerian MLP Exchange Traded Fund (ETF) (AMPL), were weak in 2018 as the space continued to simplify their structures amid a weaker WTI price and a FERC (Federal Energy Regulatory Commission) ruling that limited tax allowances on some pipelines.

ALPS Thematic 2018 Performance

Source Bloomberg, L.P., as of December 31, 2018. Past performance is not indicative of future results. Please note that ACES Inception Date was 6/28/2018. Please see page 2 for Standardized Performance.

- Small-to-mid cap biotechnology companies, as represented by the ALPS Medical Breakthrough ETF (SBIO), started off strong in 2018 until a global risk-off market began in October that hurt performance. This was also the case for the ALPS Disruptive Technology ETF (DTEC), the ALPS Clean Energy ETF (ACES), and the BUZZ U.S. Sentiment Leaders ETF (BUZ).
