

INSTITUTIONAL INVESTOR* NAMES ALPS' JEREMY MAY A RISING STAR OF THE MUTUAL FUND INDUSTRY

Denver, February 14, 2008 — ALPS Fund Services, Inc., a leading provider of outsourced and advisory solutions to the investment management industry, is pleased to announce that its Managing Director, Jeremy May, has been selected by Institutional Investor as one of “20 Rising Stars of Mutual Funds.”

May was honored in the publication’s inaugural “20 Rising Stars of Mutual Funds” special issue. Winners were nominated by their peers and selected by Institutional Investor’s editorial staff. According to the magazine, the selected individuals meet the criteria of having demonstrated expertise, dedication and consistency in their careers, indicating they will likely be the trendsetters of the future.

May, 37, joined ALPS in 1995 and is responsible for overall operations and relationship management. With his help, ALPS has experienced growth of more than 50% on average for each of the last five years.

“Jeremy has been instrumental in ensuring that, even as ALPS experiences rapid growth, we continue to deliver the kind of quality service that our customers expect,” said Ned Burke, President of ALPS. “He is indeed a star in the mutual fund industry and it’s gratifying to see him recognized with this honor.”

“It’s an honor to be recognized by my peers in this fashion,” May said. “This is a tribute to the entire ALPS team as much as it is to me personally.”
